Number 8

Wednesday, March 29, 2006

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 10:00 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Drew Weatherford, Florida State University Quarterback, upon invitation of the Speaker:

Dear Heavenly Father, first and foremost, we are all humbled by Your presence and we thank You for the opportunity to gather here before You today. Many of us are from different racial and ethnic and religious upbringings, but it is because of this great country that we are granted freedom which allows us all to gather here in peace. Right now, there are many of our own sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, dressed in uniform protecting those rights all around the world. We pray for their safety and honor their courage.

We humbly ask You to continue to guide our state in the right direction, giving our leaders the strength, wisdom, and discernment to lead the State of Florida and our nation in the way that brings honor to Your name. May these representatives of the people inspire the citizens of Florida with true servant hearts. Being a leader is never easy, but these men and women, chosen by Your will and the will of the people, have sacrificed so that they may bring peace and tranquility to all the citizens of Florida.

Father, the state of Florida has been blessed by Your grace. We thank You for the great leaders of our past, we thank You for the great and tremendous leaders of today, standing amongst us in this room, and we thank You for the leaders of tomorrow. Through Your wisdom, we can accomplish all, and we pray all of this in Christ's name. Amen.

WHEREAS, Roy Lundell Nelson, Jr., born May 29, 1969, in Bartow, Florida, the son of Roy, Sr., and Susan Nelson, graduated from Lakeland Senior High School in 1988, subsequently attended Polk Community College and Hillsborough Community Fire Academy, and in 1993 began his public service career as a part-time firefighter with the Polk County Fire Department, and

WHEREAS, spurred by a long-time desire to enter law enforcement, Roy soon enrolled in the Southwest Florida Criminal Justice Academy in Fort Myers, became a certified police officer, and in 1998 joined the New Smyrna Beach Police Department, where, exhibiting a keen interest in narcotics law, he was assigned in 2003 to the K-9 unit and partnered with K-9 Caesar, a one-year-old Belgian Malinois, while also serving on the department's Special Response Team and its Bike Patrol, and

WHEREAS, Officer Nelson died in the line of duty on August 13, 2005, a superb example of one of "America's finest," as attested to by the many letters of appreciation received from the community over the years, by his service commendations within the department, and by the recounting by colleagues and citizens of his many acts of kindness, dedication to duty, and heroism, and

WHEREAS, Officer Nelson is fondly remembered as a real hero by one New Smyrna Beach couple who wrote of how he dismantled an automobile engine in order to free two kittens trapped inside; he was chosen as a member of the presidential detail when President George W. Bush visited the city in 2002; in 2003 he arrested Michael Thomas Seibert, one of "America's Most Wanted"; and, most recently, as one of the officers who rescued a local disabled person who had fallen from his wheelchair into the water while fishing, he remained with the man until Emergency Volunteer Air Corps personnel arrived, and
